PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

PUBLIC NOTICEFORMAL CASE NO. 1057, IN THE MATTER OF VERIZON WASHINGTON, D.C. INC.'S PRICE CAP PLAN 2007 FOR THE PROVISION OF LOCAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

1. The Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia ("Commission") hereby gives notice, pursuant to D.C. Official Code Section 34-2002(j) that on April 27, 2007, Verizon Washington, DC Inc. ("Verizon") filed a petition requesting approval of its proposed Price Cap Plan 2007 ("Price Cap Plan 2007"), which governs Verizon's provision of local telecommunications services in the District of Columbia.¹ Verizon's Price Cap Plan 2007 does not include a term limit and Verizon proposes that the plan remain in effect "until marketplace developments require further modifications."² Verizon's current Price Cap Plan 2004 expires on September 8, 2007.³

2. Under Price Cap Plan 2007, the Company proposes to continue to categorize services into four baskets: (1) Basic Residential, (2) Basic Business, (3) Discretionary, and (4) Competitive services; however, the composition of some of the baskets is different than in Verizon's current plan. Specifically, Verizon proposes to include dial tone line and usage services, including Economy II service in the Basic Residential Services Basket. The Basic Business Services Basket will contain Verizon's E911 service. The Discretionary Basket will contain services that are not designated as Basic or Competitive such as Caller ID, Call Waiting, and Call Forwarding. The Competitive Services Basket will contain all business services (other than E911) including directory services, various operator services, packaged/bundled services and any new service offerings.

3. Verizon proposes to change the tariff approval process for all services by treating its tariff filings as compliance filings, allowing a one (1) day notice period with five (5) business days for comments and five (5) additional days for Verizon's response. Cost studies will be not required with every tariff filing; however, upon Commission request, Verizon will demonstrate that a service is not priced below its incremental cost.

³ See Formal Case No. 1005, In the Matter of Verizon Washington, DC Inc.'s Price Cap Plan 2007 for the Provision of Local Telecommunications Services in the District of Columbia, Order No. 13263, rel. August 4, 2004, and Order No. 13370, rel. September 9, 2004.

4. In addition, Verizon proposes rate increases for basic residential dial tone line services that will be limited to the greater of either 10% or $1.00, with revenue neutral changes permitted as long as no one price increases by more than 20%. Rate increases for the Basic Business Services Basket would be limited annually to 10% or $1.00 annually, and price increases for Discretionary Services up to $2.00 annually.

5. Verizon maintains that Price Cap Plan 2007 will continue to provide reasonable and competitive rates for telecommunication services in the District of Columbia and that the plan meets the requirements of the D.C. Telecommunications Competition Act of 1996 ("Act").⁴

6. Pursuant to the Act, the Commission has 270 days, or until January 27, 2008, to approve or disapprove Verizon Price Cap Plan 2007, after notice and a public hearing, if it finds that the plan: 1) is in the public interest; 2) contains tariffs for network elements not inconsistent with the Federal Telecommunications Act; 3) will produce fair, just, and reasonable rates; 4) accounts for changes in technology and industry structure; 5) contains customer benefits from efficiency gains, cost savings, and productivity improvements; 6) will maintain the quality and availability of telecommunications services; 7) contains adequate safeguards to ensure nondiscrimination; 8) contains safeguards against subsidies; and 9) does not unreasonably prejudice or disadvantage any customer class or telecommunications service provider.⁵

7. Any person desiring to intervene in the above-captioned proceeding shall file a petition to intervene with the Commission no later than June 15, 2007. All petitions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure as set forth in Chapter 1, Section 106 of Title 15 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations (15 DCMR § 106). Any person desiring to submit a proposed procedural schedule and a list of proposed issues must include these submissions along with the intervention requests. Joint proposed procedural schedules and issues lists are encouraged; however, the Commission will also consider individual submissions. All written comments and petitions for intervention should be sent to Ms. Dorothy Wideman, Commission Secretary, Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia, 1333 "H" Street, NW 2nd Floor, West Tower, Washington, D.C. 20005. A hearing will be convened, after notice, to consider whether Verizon's Price Cap Plan 2007 is in the public interest and meets the requirements of the D.C. Telecommunications Competition Act of 1996.⁶

⁶ Id. Verizon DC's petition, along with the Price Cap Plan 2007, is on file with the Commission. These documents may be reviewed at the Office of the Commission Secretary, 1333 H Street, N.W., 2nd Floor, West Tower, Washington, D.C., 20005, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Copies of these documents can be obtained at the Office of the Commission Secretary at a per page reproduction cost. Comments on the proposed Price Cap Plan 2007 must be made in writing to Dorothy Wideman, Commission Secretary, at the above address.
